STRIKERS AND POLICE CLASH; MANY INJURED

Minor Disturbances Take Place In Suburbs of Berlin

OUTBREAK HAS REACHED CLIMAX AND IS RECEDING

Trades Unions Refuse Benefits and Movement is Doomed

(Associated Press Telegram)
Amsterdam, Feb. 1.—There was a clash between strikers and the police in the northern part of Berlin, Thursday. One policeman was killed and a dozen strikers injured. There were minor disturbances in other sections, and in the suburbs of Berlin.

The German press generally agrees that the outbreak has reached its climax in Berlin and is now receding. The demonstrations are said to show lack of centralized control.

Reports from the chief industrial sections of Germany indicate that the strike movement nowhere is finding the support necessary to carry it along.

The Socialist party committee met in Berlin on Wednesday evening to decide upon the attitude of the party in view of the extension of the strike. The committee considered a program which, the Vossische Zeitung says, was regarded as offering a suitable basis for negotiations with the government. The program was restricted to political demands affecting domestic affairs, omitting reference to the desires in regard to the foreign policy expressed by the strikers. The committee also considered measures to prevent the impact of a strike of bakers.

The fighting yesterday in Berlin in which a policeman was killed was brought about by an attempt on the part of the crowd of men and women to interfere with the street car traffic. Another policeman was injured seriously.

Minor disturbances are reported in other sections of Berlin and in the suburbs. The afternoon newspapers have been compelled to reduce the number of their pages.

Public utilities are being operated without interruption so far as the latest news shows.

German newspapers estimate the number of strikers at 180,000.

FINNISH SITUATION IS MORE REASSURING IS STOCKHOLM NEWS

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Feb. 1.—The situation in Finland is more reassuring, according to the latest reports received at the Finnish legation at Stockholm and transmitted by the correspondent of the Times. The Red Cross guards have been disarmed or are willingly surrendering their arms all over the country. The revolutionists still hold Helsingfors, the capital.

A Helsingfors dispatch of Wednesday's date says the diet and the legitimate government are being prevented by the revolutionists from exercising their duties.

The suspension of all the general activities of religious bodies until the restoration of order has been announced by the central association of officials, it is stated. Physicians are directed to continue their work and it is promised that the railway service and food supply will be maintained under special arrangements.

The dispatch reports that a delegation from sympathizers among the people with the Bolshevik government delivered an address of cordial greeting to the Finnish government in Helsingfors assuring it of solidarity "in the common struggle against capitalism."

The foreign governments who recognized the independence of Finland are said to have been notified by the revolutionists of the change in government brought about by the revolution.

The White Guard, it is announced, has taken the town of Tavastehus, 60 miles northwest of Helsingfors, and Javesky in south Central Finland.

Strikes continue in Helsingfors and the revolutionary government is said to be maintaining similar outbreaks in several other districts.

WAS FOUND GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Cleveland, Feb. 1.—Mrs. Elsie Bass, found guilty of manslaughter last yesterday afternoon for the death of nine year old John Perko from poisoned milk, today was in the county jail awaiting sentence that will send her to prison for an indeterminate term of two to fifteen years.

Only a motion for a new trial made today delay the sentence. Her attorneys have indicated their intention of asking for a rehearing of the case.

FRENCH AIR CRUISER CARRIES A LOAD OF WOE TO THE GERMANS

Adjusting a bomb in a French airplane.

The photo shows how our fighters in the air prepare to carry a bit of sad news to the foe. It gives an unusually accurate idea of the size and power of the weapons that are carried over the enemy lines by the ally airmen. It would appear that we are able to do quite a little "strafing" on our own account.

BRILLIANT TRIUMPH OF ITALIAN ARMY STIMULATES TROOPS IN THE ASIAGO AREA

Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, Thursday, Jan. 31.—(By the Associated Press)—The splendid success gained by the Italian troops in two days of fighting, west of the Brenta river, has been maintained at all points and the area of newly occupied territory is being organized rapidly without further effort by the enemy to regain his lost positions.

As the Italian brigades, which took part in the fighting reassembled, it developed that their losses were comparatively small, the aggregate being considerably less than the number of prisoners taken from the enemy. But the enemy losses were extremely heavy as shown by the number of dead left on the field and the reports of prisoners. It is estimated that the total enemy loss, without counting the prisoners taken by the Italians, was between 5000 and 6000.

Throughout the Italian army the troops have been stimulated by the successes in the Asiago area and the Italian triumph is taken to show the really formidable and aggressive spirit of the new forces. A considerable part of the troops engaged were of the classes last called to the colors, including some 19 years old.
Many of the Sassari brigade, which distinguished itself, are Cardinians and the general commanding the division before leading the charge up the slopes of Monte di Bella, made a ringing appeal in Sardinian dialect to his men. As the Italian brigades stepped forward they shouted their shouts in their own dialect to lead the charge.

The prisoners speak of the remarkable fighting qualities shown by the Sar-dinians.

The result of the action is having an effect on the morale of the enemy, according to reports of prisoners. The Austrian winter campaign in the mountains has stopped entirely, as it was concluded that the difficult of snow and ice and the interruption of roads and transport supplies had made operations impossible. These conditions were exceedingly severe in the fighting area, even drinking water for the troops being transported up the mountains from the plains.

Having accepted these conditions as decisive against the winter offensive, the Austrians were taken completely by surprise when the Italians carried out the operation which drove the enemy back from the lines marking his winter position.

YOUNG MEN WANTED TO OPERATE TANKS

Chicago, Feb. 1.—Fifty adventurous young men to operate four "tanks" in France, are wanted by Major W. H. Allen of the Sixty-Fifth Infantry who opened a recruiting office here today.

Major Allen promises recruits all the thrills of the sea and the air with the safety of dry land—that is, the safety which goes with breaking the way for the men who "go over the top."

EXPLAINS HOW TO CURE HAMS ON BACK PORCH

Columbus, Feb. 1.—M. M. Meisse of Lancaster, is exhibiting to farmers week visitors at the Ohio State University the shoulder of a hog cured on the back porch of his home. "My purpose in bringing the specimen here," Mr. Meisse explained, "is to show that fine country ham can be made economically by folks in the cities."

The process of smoking was described as follows:

"Take a good barrel. Place a bent hook or nail in the top, on the inside. Have a small wire incinerator that will go under the barrel. Build a fire of corn cobs and hickory wood in a pan on the bottom shelf of the incinerator each morning for a week or ten days. Smoke out the fire and place over the incinerator the barrel in which the ham is hung. After the meat is sufficiently smoked it should be soaked and hung in a cool, dry place for several weeks before using."

One of the university's prize steers will be slaughtered today for instructing farmers how to cut meat to prevent waste.

HOLDS UP CLERK MAKES HIS ESCAPE AFTER GUN FIGHT

(Associated Press Telegram)

Cleveland, Feb. 1.—A lone bandit, after successfully holding up a night clerk of a downtown hotel early this morning, out gunned two policemen in a gun battle and escaped with $96 from the cash drawer.

Two policemen passing the hotel at the time witnessed the holdup, entered the hotel by front and side entrances and with drawn revolvers ordered the bandit to surrender. The robber fired pointblank at the officers and escaped in a volley of shots, although believed to have been hit in the shoulder.

CHINA FORBIDS SENDING FOOD TO THE RUSSIANS

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Feb. 1.—Five more envoies warships have arrived at Vladivostok, according to special dispatches from Petrograd. It is added that China, acting on allied advice, has forbidden exportation of foodstuffs to Russia.

It is reported in Moscow that the Turks have proposed a separate peace to the Trans-Caucasian council of workmen and soldiers delegates.
It is said that negotiations are in progress looking to the restoration of steamship service between Odessa and Constantinople and Odessa and Galatz.

The Mussulmans in South Russia, including the Crimea, are reported to have formed a government in opposition to the Bolsheviks and are cooperating against the Bolsheviks in the south.

The British embassy in Petrograd on Jan. 28 informed the Bolshevik government that British warships were at Vladivostok to protect allied subjects against possible disorder.

ENEMY ALIENS WOULD REMAIN WITH SELECTS

Express Desire to Serve the Land of Their Adoption

ACTION PROVES MEN NOT IN ARMY AGAINST WILL

Fifty Per Cent Have Applied to Remain in the Service

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, Feb. 1.—Fifty half of the 2300 enemy alien soldiers here who received word this week that they would soon be honorably discharged from the service, if they so desired, have voluntarily expressed their desire to serve the land of their adoption.
Their action, officers say, dis-proves the claims of agitators who insisted that the men were in the army against their will.

The officers attribute what they say as a remarkable expression of loyalty on the part of the foreign born soldiers to the Americanized policy pursued by Colonel S. V. Hamm, commanding the 158th depot brigade in which practically all of the alien soldiers have been training.

The men have settled the question for themselves without any suggestion or coercion from their officers, it was said today. Little groups of them have gathered during spare moments in the past few days and debated what course they should take, with the result that at least fifty per cent have decided to remain in the service. Officers expressed the belief that even a greater number of the men will ask to be retained. Some of the soldiers involved have been displeased because they were sent to the base hospital for duty, where they would be considered as non-combat.

PEACE RUMORS CAUSE BOOM ON STOCK MARKET

New York, Feb. 1.—Influenced largely by peace rumors, which carried prices upward, early trading on the stock market today gave promise of one of the biggest days' movements of the year. Sales of the first hour approximated 400,000 shares, or a rate of 2,000,000 shares for the full day. Not only were professional operators prominent in the movement, but commission houses reported a decided increase of public interest from out-of-town centers, particularly middle-west.

The early movement which was subjected to considerable profit-taking and resultant recessions, embraced high-grade rails, standard industrial shares, coppers and numerous specialties which owed their activity to peace.

Market leaders, such as United States Steel, were freely absorbed in single lots ranging from 1000 to 10,000 shares. Extreme advances in the first hour ranged from 1 to 5 points, shipments and equipments leading. At the opening of the second hour all losses were fully recovered and in numerous instances inital gains were registered. Liberty bonds, which were especially weak yesterday, showed distinct improvement. Dealings in the bond list as a whole were overshadowed by the sweeping movement in stocks, but investment issues strengthened generally.

OHIO ELECTRIC RAISES RATES

Columbus, Feb. 1.—Ohio Electric interurban rate increases, granted recently by the state utilities commission, became effective this morning. The new schedule allows a 2 1-2 cent rate on through lines of the company.

The increase does not affect the fare between Newark and Columbus but the points between these places will come under the fare to Buckeye Lake now being 30 cents for a one way ticket or 55 cents for a round trip ticket. Other points west of Newark are affected in proportion.
The points east of the city are all affected, the new rate to Zanesville is now 65 cents including the war tax for a one way ticket or $1.19 for a round trip and other points in proportion.

GOVERNMENT MAY RETALIATE WITH SPAIN FOR THE HOLDING UP AMERICAN SUPPLIES

Washington, Jan. 31.—Spain's interference with the shipment of supplies consigned across her frontiers to the American army in France and the allies may meet with swift retaliation on the part of the United States and the entente nations, according to indications here today.
Although the war trade board declined last night that sailing of all Spanish ships in American ports had been held up, it is known that certain vessels flying the Spanish flag and ready to depart had been refused clearance pending an adjustment of the situation. The United States is particularly concerned in the matter because of large orders placed in Spain by General Pershing. Since Spain refused to a great extent on the United States for foodstuffs, government is in a position to force a lifting of any embargo placed by Spain.
Spain's official reason for stopping the shipment of supplies across its frontiers into France is that the Spanish railroad system has broken down, but charges of German influence, said to be strong with a considerable element of the Spanish government, have been made. It has been charged also that goods from Spain have been reaching Germany by way of Switzerland and the Swiss port of entry in France.
The war trade board in its statement last night pointed out that during Jan. 11, Spanish ships cleared from American ports with cargoes and that two cleared yesterday.
It was evident from developments in official circles today that there was a desire to minimize the possibility of the expected action against Spain and this led to the conclusion that the situation might be passed over without the necessity of any action.

SPAIN TO DEMAND REPARATION FOR SINKING VESSEL

Madrid, Thursday, Jan. 31.—The cabinet met today under the presidency of King Alfonso and decided to send a strong protest to Germany demanding reparation to Spain for the sinking of the steamship Giralda. The note will not be sent through Prince von Rathborf, the German ambassador here, but will be telegraphed direct to the Spanish ambassador in Berlin.

The Spanish steamer Giralda was sunk by a German submarine on Jan.
26 after the crew of the U boat had pillaged the vessel. The crew of the Giralda, which measured 4400 tons, was saved.

SECOND ATTEMPT MADE ON LIFE OF PREMIER LENINE

London, Feb. 1.—Another unsuccessful attempt on the life of Premier Lenine was made last night, according to the Petrograd correspondent of the Daily News. A young man in a student's uniform entered the Smolny Institute, the Bolshevik headquarters, and fired a shot from a revolver at the premier without hitting him.

The Red Guards stationed outside the premier's room were arrested and will be charged with neglect of duty.
An attempt was made to assassinate Premier Lenine on Jan. 18. With a number of friends of the premier was going to the Smolny Institute in an automobile when several shots were fired at the car. Lenine was not injured.

DETECTIVES SEARCH FOR MISSING CHILD

New York, Feb. 1.—One hundred detectives were searching today for Lillian Rosner, three years old, whose mysterious disappearance from in front of her home in Lenox avenue Tuesday afternoon has stirred the police department to unusual activity.

The police already have searched houses, schools and parks for a trace of the child but without success.
Scores of cellars in the vicinity of her home where it was feared she might have been lured and murdered, were searched. The police also are working on the theory that she may have been kidnapped.

THE ITALIANS ARE SECURE IN NEW POSITION

Make Surprise Attack and

AUSTRIANS UNABLE TO REACH DEFENSIVE LINES

Other Military Operations Are of a Minor Character

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches)

While many thousands of workers are still on strike in Berlin and other parts of Germany the strike movement appears to be no longer in the process of extension, even in the capital. In the chief industrial centers outside of Berlin support also is reported as lacking in sufficient degree to carry the movement along.
Repressive measures in Berlin have taken the form of the seizure of the trade union building by the police and the arrest of several of the labor leaders.

Declaration of martial law in the great ports of Hamburg and Bremen and a lack of definite news concerning the progress of the strike movement in Germany, indicate the possibility that the authorities have taken stern measures to deal with the discontented workmen. Related reports, however, show that the movement spread widely since Monday. Some correspondents in Holland believe that the situation has grown worse owing to the efforts of the German government to minimize the importance of the strike and the scarcity of news. While a report from Copenhagen says that all the Socialist leaders have been summoned to Berlin to discuss political questions, advice received in Amsterdam are to the effect that Chancellor von Hertling, following the example of Minister of the Interior Waltraff, refused to "see" the strikers' delegation.

In Berlin there has been a fatal clash between the strikers and the police, and minor disturbances are reported to have occurred in other sections as well as in the suburbs of the capital. The Berlin press says the movement in Berlin has

TREATMENT ACCORDED AMERICAN PRISONERS CAPTURED BY GERMANS

With the American Army in France, Thursday, Jan. 31.—American officers at the front have come into possession of documents said to have been taken from Germans opposite our positions and which deal with the treatment to the accorded prisoners.

The documents say that all prisoners, including commissioned and non-commissioned officers, after being captured are to be kept in cages for four days without food and compelled to stand all the time. At the four-day period only small quantities of food are to be given.

Although definite information on this point is lacking, some American officers today expressed the belief that the order resulted from difficulties the Germans experienced in extracting information from the first American prisoners captured in November. Such treatment of prisoners, it is felt, could be designed only to make them give up military information.

Conditions were quiet on the American front today despite the fog which showed no sign of abating.
Beyond a few shots from both sides at registered targets there was very little artillery firing. There was virtually no infantry activity.

Additional details of yesterday's raid show that only the heroism of the platoon in the trenches nearest the listening post prevented the enemy from entering the trenches and, perhaps, capturing prisoners.
As soon as the barrage fire lifted the platoon came out of its dugouts and stepped to the firing platforms.
Their rifle fire held off a superior number of Germans who tried to approach. When the enemy saw that the Americans were determined to hold the positions they withdrew into the fog. Later a number of bloody enemy rifles and other equipment were found beyond the American position.

NEW NAME FOR THE GERMAN MEASLES

Camp Dix, N. J., Feb. 1.—Considering that it sounds unparliamentary to have German measles, the soldiers at the cantonment here who are suffering from the much abused malady have started a movement to change the name of the disease to "Liberty measles." Camp surgeons who have heard the gibes and jokes aimed at their patients are so sympathetic it was said they might make an appeal to Washington to have a new brand of measles officially designated.

him of the sincerity and good-will

They all say that the disintegration of the movement is proceeding rapidly. The riots of yesterday are said to have been due to the anger of the strikers on realizing that the movement was doomed to early failure.

The trades' unions are declining to pay out strike benefits. As a indication of the lack of centralized direction it is said that only a few of the big plants of Berlin were forced to suspend operations completely.

The governing board of the Social-Democratic party announced yesterday that it had not taken over the management of the strike. The trades' unions through the general commission also disclaimed responsibility and the strike appears consequently to have been orphaned, so far as these two authoritative bodies are concerned. The part played by Philip Scheidemann, Friedrich Ebert and Herr Braun, Socialist leaders, is explained on the ground that they are anxious to prevent the strike from resulting in disorganization and rioting.

While the party as such endorses the political demands regarding domestic affairs, which were made by the strikers, it is generally believed that it definitely disapproves the present strike as an instrument forcing the government to meet these demands.

The Tageblatt warns Schneidemann and Ebert against playing Trotsky's game, and appeals to the radical leaders to bring the outbreak to a conciliatory conclusion, on account of the effect abroad and for the sake of the future prospects for the internal reforms championed by the Reichstag majority party.

The official bulletin of the National Liberal party declares that the Berlin strike-leaders are playing into Trotsky's hands. Most of the newspapers of the Reichstag majority parties continue their criticisms of the Socialists. The Germania says that by associating themselves with the strike both sections of the party have displayed very bad taste, which might have well consequences convenient to themselves. The Freisinnige Zeitung says the Progressive People's party will have nothing to do with the latest acts of the Social-Democrats on whom it throws full responsibility for all consequences of the strike.

The Kreuz Zeitung of Berlin prints an abusive article regarding the strikers who, it says, are behaving as though on a holiday.

Great numbers of them, according to the newspaper, gather at Kempinski's, a famous Berlin restaurant, and it is the class of which the strikers form a part that makes up a large proportion of the patrons of the opera, the most frivolous theaters, the wineries, moving picture houses and dance and music halls.

CHANCELLOR REFUSES A CONFERENCE WITH STRIKE DELEGATES

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Feb. 1.—Little fresh information on the strike movement in Germany had come through early today and virtually all the news in the morning papers here has been delayed in transmission. None of the Berlin newspapers of Wednesday's date has arrived in Amsterdam, and several of them are not printing owing to strikes among their employees.
Delegates representing the strikers, according to Amsterdam reports, attempted to interview Chancellor von Hertling but he refused to see them, as had Herr Wairaff, minister of the interior.

The actual situation Thursday is extremely vague. The scarcity of news induces some correspondents in Holland to assume that the situation has grown worse, but they warn against attaching importance to the strike movement as far as the army is concerned.

The Berns correspondent of the Daily Mail deprecates a too ready assumption that the strike will have serious effects in Germany. He says no strike or revolt in Prussia can be taken seriously until it has won its spurs.

The mind and moral will of the whole population has been made too effectively mechanical by a century of military drill. It must be remembered too, that strike funds are almost non-existent in Prussia for although the workmen have been earning high wages, they have virtually been compelled to subscribe nearly all the war loans and get no interest.

Newspaper opinion in London regarding the strike is divergent. Some papers incline to the belief that the strike really denotes the growing strength of a democratic spirit in Germany, while others favor the view that the whole thing to a great extent has been engineered by the government for its own purposes. The Daily News, while accepting with reserve the more extravagant accounts, thinks it is obvious that there has been spread into Germany and Austria some measure of the spirit which dethroned the Russian emperor.

The Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung says that the shipyard hands at Danzig struck on Tuesday. The strike began in the Schichau yard and the strikers were joined by 4,000 workers in the government yards. Up to Wednesday the workers in the arms and artillery plants at Danzig had remained at work. The commanding the Leipzig district has posted placards in that city threatening to send all the strikers to the fighting front.

It is reported that the German government up to this time has prevented the strike from extending to the railways and tramways and the workers employed in the production and distribution of food.

THREATENED WITH NEW REVOLUTION

(Associated Press Telegram)
El Paso, Tex., Feb. 1.—Rumors of a new movement against the Mexican government in the state of Sonora were current here today.
Jose Obregon, a brother of General Alvaro Obregon, former minister of war, is said to be the leader of the new movement, which it is reported, has been joined by a large number of Yaqui Indians.

KEET KIDNAPER CONFESSES TO PART IN CRIME

(Associated Press Telegram)
Marshfield, Mo., Feb. 1.—Claude Piersol, convicted of the kidnaping of Lloyd Keet, who probably will be removed today to the state penitentiary to begin his 35-year sentence, made a confession last night, according to Sheriff Mackey of Webster county, today. Piersol, according to the sheriff, declared that a Springfield attorney advised with the kidnaping gang, even drawing up the "contract," specifying the amount each was to receive when the ransom money was paid by J. Holland Keet, the baby's father.

The confession is said to name 12 persons.

Piersol reiterated he was not the leader of the kidnapers, declaring that a mysterious person known as "Riley" directed the gang.

Instead of being taken to a deserted shack 10 miles from Springfield, as told in his confession, Piersol said the baby was brought to the home of Taylor Adams, a member of the gang, also under sentence.

Six days later, Piersol said, the baby was taken to the Crenshaw home. He declared the child died there from lack of attention.

"Riley" and three others put the body in a cistern, where it was found, according to Piersol.

The men are Germans, Austrians, Turks, Bulgarians and Hungarians. Officers say that the final decision will be left with the men. Release of those who desire their discharges is expected to begin within the next few weeks, as soon as doubtful cases have been investigated.

In the light of the recent complaints made to members of congress to the effect that the remains of selectees have been mutilated and have not been treated properly, Colonel de Witt stated that the bodies of selectees who die here are given the same care and treatment they would receive in civil life. The bodies of all the selectees are clothed in full uniform.

The measles epidemic among the soldiers continue to diminish, only 237 cases being reported today at the base hospital, the least in four weeks. Mumps has shown an increase of 200 per cent in the past week.

Enlisted men who have been on leave of absence from their organizations for 24 hours or more or men who are reporting to their companies for the first time, hereafter will be examined for infectious diseases, as a result of an order issued today at division headquarters.

Three selectees were ordered discharged today for physical disability as follows: Frederick Hillburg of Cleveland; Elmer Ewing of Youngstown; and Bonnie Wigfall of Cincinnati, both colored.

SUMMONS SENATORS FOR A CONFERENCE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Feb. 1.—At a conference with a dozen republican and democratic senators whom he summoned to the White House today, President Wilson reiterated his opposition to the pending bills to create a super war cabinet and a director of munitions contending that they would hamper in the conduct of the war an dhat they were unnecessary.
When the conference broke up after having been in session practically two hours Senators said they had been discussing military bills and would leave any announcement to the White House.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Feb. 1.—President Wilson summoned a dozen Democratic and Republican senators to the White House for a conference at noon. All the senators professed entire ignorance of the purpose of the conference, but it appeared that war legislation including the proposal for a war cabinet and director of munitions which the president opposes might be discussed.

DANIELS ADDRESSES NAVAL GRADUATES FROM ANNAPOLIS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Annapolis, Md., Feb. 1.—The United States naval reserve force, now embracing 69,000 men and 7,800 officers, "is larger than the regular navy when war was declared and three times as large as in the Spanish-American war," Secretary Daniels declared today in addressing the special graduation classes of 300 reserve officers at the naval academy.

"This is a wonderful record for a service authorized eighteen months ago," the secretary continued, "and its creation has made possible many phases of the diversified work the navy has been called upon to do."
Mr. Daniels told the young officers who have successfully completed the prescribed four-year course that when they left Annapolis today they would find important assignments awaiting them and their achievements would depend upon themselves.

The ideal of the navy in war, the secretary said, was contained in Benjamin Franklin's order to the navy's first captain, John Paul Jones, to show at all times a "tender regard for non-combatants."
"If you wish to find the difference in America's method of warfare and Germany's, it is embodied in Franklin's instructions to Jones," Mr. Daniels said, "for the American regards war as a tragedy."

Much of the secretary's address was taken up with a recital of the brilliant achievements of the American destroyer flotilla in the war and the bravery of American gun crews aboard merchantmen.

"Read the story of the Cassin," he said, "which, though struck by a torpedo and seriously crippled, refused to return to port as long as there appeared to be a chance of engaging the submarine. The whole country was thrilled by the account of the exploit of the Fanning and the Nicholson in destroying a German submarine and capturing its entire crew. The British admirals in command of officers and men, a whole affair reflects credit on the discipline and training of the United States flotilla."

"The first officer lost in the present conflict, Lieutenant Clarence C. Thomas, after the Vavum was sunk, cheered his freezing men as they were tossed about in an open boat far from land, and he at last perished from cold and exposure. After the Jacob Jones was sunk Lieutenant (junior grade) S. F. Galk, though weakened by shock and exposure, swam from raft to raft to equalize the load and keep afloat the men who were awaiting rescue, and in the night, before succor arrived, perished."

"Let us not forget those two gunners of the Antilles who stood by their guns until it was too late to escape. The contents of the Silver-shell which sent down the submarine which attacked it; or the Morenia, on which the men stayed at their guns until the flames flared up to the top of the smokestacks; of the Campana whose gunners fought for hours until their ammunition was exhausted; of the J. L. Luckenbach, hit nine times and temporarily disabled, fought a submarine for four hours before aid arrived, and later managed to reach port under her own steam; of the Arsenault, and a dozen others are notable enough to be recorded in naval history."

They were unable, however, even to reach the defense lines, leaving the Italians secure in possession of their newly won position.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS CLOSE

New York, Feb. 1.—Lack of fuel that has resulted in the failure of the city purchasing department to accumulate a surplus sufficient to insure continuous sessions until spring has resulted in the closing indefinitely of 125 public schools in Brooklyn. MET DEATH IN ELECTRIC CHAIR AT PENITENTIARY

Columbus, Feb. 1.—Charles Burnett, convicted of murdering John O'Brien in Stark county last June, was electrocuted at the state penitentiary early this morning. The body will be buried in Columbus. Burnett was a circus follower. His victim was a tramp.

The prisoner went to his death with nerve. His last statement was to Warden Thomas, officiating at the execution: "They said I cussed you, warden. I didn't do it. I cussed a lot of people around here, but not you." When Dr. Kramer said, "We've got to wet your hair," he replied, "Well, wet her hair."

The current that killed him attained a maximum voltage of 1750. It maintained for one minute and a half.

To Chaplain Reed, just before he left the death cell, he said, "Let me pray." He repeated the Lord's prayer, adding, "I hope everybody to whom I have done wrong will forgive me." Burnett was a circus follower. His victim was a tramp.
Burnett will be buried at 1:30 p. m. today at Union cemetery.
Prison officials were again touched this morning by a woman's voice, calling to learn if the condemned man had been killed. The woman has made the inquiry after many electrocutions.
When told Burnett was dead, she said, this morning, "The poor soul."

DEVELOPING OF WATER POWER.

While the failure to supply coal has almost broken down the industrial fabric of the territory east of the Mississippi river, hundreds of valuable water powers along our rivers are flowing to waste. Great volumes of water are running down through fast rapids at such an inclination that they could turn the wheels of large cities. Yet never a dollar has been spent to develop them.

It may be said that there has not been capital enough in the country to utilize them. Yet a few years ago it was hard to get more than 4 per cent for money and have it safe. Capital was going begging.

Many put money into wildcat mine propositions that were mere holes in the ground, undeveloped and uninvestigated prospects. Millions more went out of the country into rubber and other plantations in countries subject to revolutionary upheaval. Untold millions went into Mexico under a lawless people, and have now gone up in smoke or are standing idle.

If half of the money that has been thrown away in unsound investments in and out of the country in the past 15 years had been put into developing our own water powers, there would be no coal shortage now. Hundreds of industrial plants that now use coal would be taking their energy over the electric wires, with no cost for fuel, except occasionally in summer when water was low.

It may not be possible to remedy the lack before the war is over. It takes years to develop a power plant, and this is not a good time to raise capital. But it is well to look at our mistakes and resolve not to make them a second time. Water-power propositions, when organized on a correct technical and financial basis, have been among the soundest form of investment. They save fuel, reduce the cost of manufacturing, and require no railroad transportation. Several years ago there was talk of developing the water-power at Black Hand, but perhaps the low stage of water in the summer season discouraged the promoters of the plan.

Licking county is one of the first in Ohio to grasp the opportunity offered by the government's war savings system. Last week's sales of War Savings stamps exceeded $25,000, and this week's figures will probably go beyond that sum. The people of Newark and many sections of Licking county are quickly grasping the wonderful advantages of this savings plan.

Now Mr. Groundhog, see what you can do for us. January has almost put us out of business.

GROUNDHOG DAY.

Hey, there, Mr. Groundhog: old top, you there again so soon? Well, well, well!

As we have had a severe winter the weather prophets now forecast an early spring. Brer Groundhog will be watching the food-raising preparations. He had a keen eye on all the garden work last summer, which, of course, was all for his particular benefit.

Now Brer Groundhog will have other things to do this summer than luxuriate on the abundant vegetable gardens. His eternal feud with the small boy and Towser must be reckoned on. Mr. Groundhog must spend a good part of his summer providing his hole with a system of rear exits. He will need them at about the time the kids begin building their fires under his front door.

But Mr. Groundhog likes the game and is anxious for it to begin. So he will look eagerly to see if his shadow is visible this February 2, and if not he will be pleased to remain out and begin spring operations.

PROBATION WORK.

The increase of crime for some years past has been a problem that has worried all students of civic progress. Our manner of life has been training up an increasing criminal class. It was bad enough before the war. Since the United States began fighting, an increase of arrests and jail commitments of 50 per cent has been reported from many places.

One of the most hopeful proposals for keeping down crime has been the probation system, in use now in many states. Under this plan men convicted for first offenses of a minor character are given a chance to make good under the supervision of some probation or court officer. It is claimed that three-quarters of the men placed under this supervision come through straight.

The system is most commonly used in dealing with drunkenness. But it is equally applicable to the many small larceny cases that indicate that a fellow has made his beginnings along the path of crime.

The man who is just starting wrong needs to have someone whom he respects talk to him very seriously. It may not convince him to point out the moral error of his ways. But if he can be made to see that he is beginning on a path that will lead him down to ruin and misery and wreck his life, in the majority of cases he will turn back in time.

The old-time theory of clapping a man in jail for a considerable sentence for a trifling offense has never worked as a reformatory measure. Some boys find jails a school of crime, and learn from older offenders the tricks of the game. A friendly hand and a warning voice can save many men just hesitating on the brink of downfall.

Contrib. writes in to ask what has become of the man that used to write those three-volume treatises on how to avoid "overproduction." Well, last heard from he had been down at the grocer's 19 times trying to get a pound of sugar.

Some people's idea of overcoming war obstacles is for the government to take a lot more industries and load itself up with a great many new difficulties.

Now if the Russian Bolsheviks would only join in and have a few dreamless months, things would begin to move at last.

It is hardly necessary for a man to commit suicide, even if the new income tax law has taken away $70 of his $5000 income.

Groundhog Day is the time when the politicians come out to see if they can see any shadow of the November elections.

The children have joined the general win-the-war movement by volunteering to have schoolless days.

(Ohio State Journal.)

Secretary Baker has won the day. He has driven back the forces of complaint that threatened his department. The country is feeling better than it did a few days ago. The uncomfortable impressions that it felt on account of the government's apparent dilatoriness have been succeeded by a real satisfaction. It has been interesting to watch such big papers as The New York Times, The Chicago Tribune and some others which have been calling upon President Wilson to dispossess Baker, and see how completely they back out, having only to plead now that their attacks have succeeded in smoking out the secretary to tell how efficient his department is, how well the country is prepared for war, and how it is making use of those preparations. The most aggressive warlike event of the year was the secretary's statement. It has actually revived the spirit of the whole nation. Now we can see why it was that President Wilson commended Baker so strongly.

Did You Know
That the Pongo is an ape of the same genus as the Orang but of much greater size? It is six feet in more from the head to the crown of the head, and covered with black hair intermingled with dark red. It has a very prominent muzzle, a large mouth, and a nearly naked face except the lower part which has a beard.

moderate views. He is quoted as saying in part:

"We have declared for a class war. Not recognizing violence on the part of individuals we stand for class violence against other classes, and we are not perturbed by the wails of those who are disconcerted by the sight of this violence. They must decisively reconcile themselves to the idea that a simple peasant or soldier will command them, and that they will be compelled to accept the new order of things."

One of the fallacies of such reasoning, if it can be called such, lies in the assumption that a simple soldier or peasant is qualified for leadership by the very fact that he occupies a lowly position in the community. That certainly is not the American point of view. We elect farmers and workmen to positions of honor and profit, but we do not consider that they are entitled to leadership simply by reason of their occupation. When we need medical attention we turn to an educated man, a doctor. If in need of legal assistance, we go to a man trained in the law. In political life we seek as leaders those who have made a study of public questions and whose judgment is supposed to be sound. Such a leader, the theory of the Bolshevik training counts for nothing, and a man is advanced to leadership because he happens to be a peasant and is, therefore, presumably ignorant. The practical working out of this beautiful theory is that Russia, built up through several centuries by the czars, has in a few months fallen to pieces under its Socialist regime and stands absolutely defenseless before Germany. Class consciousness and class wars may suit the nebulous Muscovite intellect, but Americans will still be inclined to hold that for their country the old plan of fair play for all will best fill the bill.

PROHIBITION AMENDMENT.

(Dallas, Tex., News)

First it was Mississippi, then Virginia, next Kentucky, and now it is South Carolina that ratifies the prohibition amendment. The circumstances are piquant in their suggestion, and one may rank them according to his relish. To some it may seem more noteworthy that the State which was the home of Jefferson Davis should ratify this amendment than that it is the State which was the home of Thomas Jefferson should be the second. To some others, it may seem more noteworthy still that the bourbon State of Kentucky should achieve the alacrity of being third. As for us, the action of South Carolina seems not to be deprived of transcending significance by reason of the circumstance that its place in the procession is fourth. South Carolina is the home of nullification, and its action supplies whatever may have been lacking to perfect the nullification of the State right doctrine as an axiom of our politics. This, of course, is not to say that the validity of that axiom is affected by the action of all these States. It is merely to say that having been so sedulously set aside in these four States, the doctrine of State rights, as a pertinent consideration in the problems of government, has been relegated to the museum of philosophical antiquities. It still remains available as a subject of academic disquisition and sophomoric debate. Men will long discuss, inevitably, whether its reign has been promotive or obstructive to our political and social progress. But all other interests than this it has lost. It can no longer be offered as an argument for or against government measures, for the reason that the people among whom it was revered have repudiated it as a touchstone of wisdom and expedience.

THE OPTIMIST IN THE FLOOD

NEW "STUNTS" FOR SOLDIER BOYS IN FRANCE

Paris, Jan. 10.—Baseball, football and the usual field and track events are being pushed into the background among the American troops in France. They are still played and as popular as ever, but there is not room enough for all of the men who want to play.

To meet this need, mass athletics has been invented by a group of Y. M. C. A. workers including Dr. James H. McCurdy of Springfield, Massachusetts, director of Y. M. C. A. athletics in France; Professor James Naismith, professor of physical education and hygiene at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas, and inventor of basketball; Dr. George L. Meylan, professor of physical education at Columbia University, and Dr. P. Y. Pest, director of physical education of the Y. M. C. A. of Newark, New Jersey. Not only whole companies but entire regiments take part and enter into competition with other companies and regiments.

The army heads demand that every man shall be given a chance to take part in the sports. This was impossible with the older sports as comparatively few men may play at a time and considerable practice is required to make a good team.

It will come as a surprise to many to know that the American troops landing in France are now marching from the transports to athletic fields where they are put through inter-regimental contests. These games iron out the kinks acquired on shipboard. Chauncey P. Hulbert, the writer, who was present when the first games were played, gives a detailed account of them as follows:

The great convoy had come into port. The official inspections and examinations had been made and visits had been paid. The ships were lined up along the docks. Great gangways and smoke-grey ladders were lying ready for use.

The decks were jammed with American soldiers anxious to land and for the joy of unrestricted freedom of bodily movement. A naval officer accompanied by several soldiers came aboard. There were a few minutes of parley and simultaneously the bands on each ship began to play.

Down the fore and aft gangplanks marched the men as on parade. Following its own band each company took up its allotted space in a great field, a short way from the docks. The schedule for the first hour called for 1440 men.

There they stood in columns of files, twenty men to a file, eight files to a company. Between company files was a lane six feet wide. The men looked about curiously and with interest. This certainly started differently from any drill they had had so far experienced. Across the field two hundred yards away stood a line of stakes; each company's flag being attached to the stake directly in front of it.

The first man in each file was standing behind a rope pegged down in a small ditch. Six feet beyond and parallel to it stretched another rope. The men became more and more curious as they took in these details. A small group of Y. M. C. A. men and officers were consulting together in the midst of the field. Suddenly a whistle blew and the little central groups scattered to all corners of the field. The commanding officer of each company took his place across the six-foot shallow trench opposite his men.

An order rang out: "First man in each file—to the rope. On command do a standing broad jump across the trench; advance three steps from where you land and about-face. Next man in each file do likewise, falling in behind the first man. Each man clearing the ditch counts one point for his company."

Number one in each file looked nervously down the line at the other unfortunate Number Ones. They certainly were the goats this time.

"Toe the rope! range out the order. 'One—two—three—jump!'"

The line of men sprang forward and outward, landing with anxious care. Everyone had cleared the ditch.

"Number Two!" came the order, and the second man in each file did likewise. Four men landed in the ditch, much to their embarrassment.

The officers were busily keeping score. One thousand eight men out of the 1440 or 71 per cent, cleared the ditch. Another set of orders was given and the men found themselves formed again in their original positions facing the line of company flags.

A short space before the officers stood a long line of men holding a rope at arm's length over their heads. The men were ordered to start sprinting in the present formation until another whistle blew thirty seconds later. All the men who were beyond the rope, which was dropped to waist height at the whistle, counted one point for their companies, those behind the rope failed to score. If any man could outstrip the man in file ahead of him, he was to do so passing on the left. When the race was finished they were to line up in files by the company flags.

"Did he say race?" whispered one man to the file leader. The man nodded silently. Again the whistle sounded and the wild race began. Picture 1440 men sprinting simultaneously down a field, mud flying, arms gyrating, tongues hanging out as they neared the goal.

The rope suddenly dropped, dividing the forces nearly in two. Seven hundred and eighty-four, or 56 per cent, were ahead of the rope. The men, panting and laughing, formed their files once more. This was pretty good fun for war manœuvres. What under the sun was coming next?

Apparently a variation was about to be introduced. There came a Y. M. C. A. man overtopped by a net ball in which were 16 inflated soccer balls. The Y. M. C. A. man explained the next event. It was called "company soccer." The men were divided into eight equal teams of one hundred seventy-five men each. On four large fields they were to play soccer against each other for thirty minutes. Four balls went to each field. One side trying to kick them over the goal-line (one point) or through the regular goalposts (three points) at the end of the field and the other team at the other end.

In two and one-half minutes there was the greatest scrimmage you ever saw. Get in mind a field on which 350 men are all trying to get as many boots at four footballs as they can. And multiply that by the four fields that were in simultaneous use. The umpires and scorekeepers had an even more lively time of it than the players. As fast as a goal was scored, the ball was thrown into the melee again at the center of the field. So fast was the scoring that the referees lost exact count. One team kicked well over seventy goals inside of 30 minutes.

Again the whistles blew and the men formed files again. Everybody had had a good time, and was in a big sweat. No one was hurt and no one was happy. The men put on their coats and marched off to their quarters.

So ended the first hour of the great inter-regimental field-meet that the Y. M. C. A. conducted during the men's first afternoon on shore. For the next two hours the program was duplicated, even larger numbers of men participating than in the first hour. The officers were enthusiastic about the results. They crowded around to receive more detailed instructions as to how to manage such an affair.

Dr. James H. McCurdy, director of Red Triangle athletics in France and professor of physical education at the International Y. M. C. A. college, Springfield, Mass., spent the following morning telling the assembled officers of this convoy how it was done and distributing instruction leaflets. During the succeeding hours he with Professor James Naismith, the inventor of basketball, and Dr. John Coulter addressed the men and officers on "Social Morality" and "Health."

Under such men as Dr. McCurdy, Dr. Meylan, Dr. Pest and several other noted physical directors, the Y. M. C. A. has studied the problem of the army's need along the line of mass athletics. Obviously the old-style track meet for a few trained stars is out of the question, as is also the playing of such specialized games as football and baseball, where relatively few men play the game and that only after long practice together.

That the faith of the army in the Y. M. C. A.'s ability to meet the army's need adequately is justified, was proved in the first 36 hours of the men on shore which was turned in its hands to direct. The Y. M. C. A. like the army, has learned that it is group efficiency, skill and stamina that alone count in war.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Taylor called at the parsonage last Sunday morning.

Dr. Leatherman was called to the Charles Harter home last Sunday evening owing to the illness of Mrs. Harter and daughter Mabel.

Mr. T. O. Slocumb received a telegram from his son Jim who is at Camp Wheeler last Monday stating he feels pretty good but very weak yet. We hope he will soon be better and get home on a furlough to recuperate. He says they are under quarantine until the first of March.

Miss Fay White and her mother have both been on the sick list but are better again.

Mr. Burrell Ruffner has been sick the past few days. His wisdom teeth are giving him considerable trouble. Dr. Brown was called last week and lanced one of them that gave him some relief.

Mr. Clarence Messick and family spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Messick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harter.

Mr. Charles Saum has moved from the old Ruffner home to the house he formerly occupied on the Lawyer farm. His son who lived there will move to town.

The business meeting of the church will be at the parsonage next Saturday afternoon at the usual hour. It is necessary that as many as can be present.

The Ladies' Circle meets with Mrs. Howard Ford February 8th. This is the meeting for the election of officers. We hope to have a good number of the ladies present.

Miss Gertrude Black is having quite a serious time with neuralgia in her face.

The funeral of little Helen Strear took place here Wednesday of last week. Sympathy goes out to the parents in their trouble.

Little Helen Strear has been and is yet very ill with double pneumonia. She is under the care of Dr. Letherman of Outville. We hope time will soon be a change for the better.

The Social Evening club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Clara Deck, Columbia street, Wednesday evening, January 30. During the evening a delicious two-course supper was served to the members and one guest—Mrs. Louis Clay. After pleasant evening devoted to needlework, the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Homer Lay, Columbia street, February 13.

Geiger—Tygard.
Announcement is made of the marriage in Pittsburgh on January 30, of Miss Mildred V. Tygard and J. Paul Geiger of Hebron, O. The impressive ring ceremony being solemnized by the Rev. Alfred E. Fletcher at the home of the bride's parents, 437 Edgemont street.

The wedding took place at 5:30 o'clock in the presence of the bride's immediate relatives and a wedding supper was served immediately after the ceremony. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Tygard and has been very popular in the younger social set in Pittsburgh, and is well known in Ohio as she has visited relatives there on numerous occasions. Mr. Geiger is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Geiger of Hebron, O.; is a graduate of Ohio State University, class '14, and is a member of Acacia fraternity, Waw chapter.

Roe—Bell.
On Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock the marriage of Miss Laura Marie Bell and Mr. Clarence O. Roe was solemnized in the First M. E. church, Dr. L. C. Sparks reading the marriage service.

The altar was arranged with candles, spruce and white carnations, and during the ceremony Mrs. A. E. Best sang "I Love You Truly," and a prefatory recital was given by the organist, Miss Pearl Bourner. The bride wore a traveling suit of "Sammy" brown with white-topped shoes, gloves and hat and her bouquet was a corsage arrangement of white roses. Miss Mildred Woodward of West Church street, a student at Denison University, was bridesmaid, and wore a suit of brown with harmonizing hat and shoes and her bouquet was of pink roses.

Mr. Roe was attended by his best man—Mr. Harold Royley of Ohio State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe left for a short wedding trip, and on their return will be at home in North Sixth street. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Bell, North Sixth street, while Mr. Roe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roe, Eddy street. The bridegroom is an electrician at the American Bottle company.

Alice Wingate entertained a few of her little friends at her home in South Fourth street on Monday evening. The occasion was her sixth birthday anniversary. The hours were spent with games and refreshments were served the following: Eloise McCoy, Florence McIntire, Annabelle Smith, Mary Margaret Handle, Esther Inlow, Ruth Alice Wingate, Richard Thompson, Arthur Handle, Joseph Redman.

Assisting in entertaining the children were Mrs. Jack Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller of Columbus.

(Special to The Advocate)
Granville, Ohio, Feb. 1.—Interest in the big bazaar or sale to be held in about two weeks is being felt and talked all over town, and already many men are expressing a willingness to help the ladies in this big benefit for the A. F. F. W. and Red Cross. Several owners have offered their property for headquarters but the old G. F. C. building owned by J. S. Jones, has been selected as the one best suited to the purpose. Much work will need to be done before the old hall is made comfortable and attractive, but it can be done, with well directed effort.

Ed Evans used part of his noon hour in looking over its possibilities; Harry Thomas says, "I am willing to help in any way I can, and I don't believe any man in town will want pay in this cause"; John Thomas has offered to install the Delco Light free for three nights if the sale shall last so long.

The Monday closing orders are observed by every business house in Granville, and the drug stores as well close at 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell of Jamaica, L. I., who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Case, left for home last evening.

Fred Buxton has been laid up with a painful attack of rheumatism.

In the inter fraternity basketball game Wednesday evening in Swazey gymnasium, Beta Theta Pi defeated Sycamore by a score of 19 to 9.

Dr. L. T. Richards of Parsons, Kans., is visiting his brothers and other relatives in and around Granville.

Mrs. James A. Gano of Winfield, Kans., was called to the Newark hospital Saturday where her daughter, Mrs. Guy Carlyle of Union Station, underwent a serious operation.

At the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society recently held, the following officers were elected: President, Miss John Owen; vice president, Miss Mae Stark; secretary, Mrs. Parrish; treasurer, Mrs. Guy Case.

Mrs. S. E. Morrow delightfully entertained the Winter Pique club on Wednesday afternoon at her home in South Prospect street. Nearly all of the 25 members were present. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock and a pleasant evening was enjoyed. Guests of the club were Mrs. H. W. Howe, the house guest of Mrs. Fred Buxton, Miss Viola Kier, guest of her mother, Mrs. T. Kier, and Mrs. Robert Bell of Newark, sister and house guest of the hostess.

Mayor Coons, chairman of the local draft board says that the final classifications of the board are practically completed and that medical examination will start on next Wednesday, Feb. 6th, continuing each day thereafter, until all of the class 1 men have been examined.

Lieut. Ralph G. Koonz, who was graduated from Denison University in June, 1917, has completed his training course in radio, College Park, Maryland, and has been acting as an instructor in the Aviation school at Fort Sill, Okla.

Semester examinations closed Thursday and a few days' recess will be enjoyed before the beginning of the second semester which many of the students will spend at their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howe have received an interesting letter from their son Philip, who is with the artillery at Camp Shelby, Miss., which is graphically told his first experience in tending one of the big guns out on the range. His job was to pull the waterproof covering off the shrapnel shells. After he had removed them from the caisson then put them into the fuse setter and set the fuse. He found it nervous work for a few moments; then he found he could let the great guns bang without flinching. The men of his battery received unlimited praise from their officers for the coolness displayed.

ABOUT PEOPLE

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Crow of Jacksonville, left today for Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., to visit their son, Lieut. Allen G. Crow, at Camp Greenleaf. Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Rarick will join them at Columbus. Mrs. Rarick is a sister of the Lieutenant.

DRIVES OUT PAIN

It Is So Nice Because Greaseless, Rubs Right In, Will Not Soil the Linen and Has a Pleasant Odor.

Here is just what you have been wishing for—a clean, pure cream-like mustard preparation, that has the "pep" without a single objectionable feature.

"MUS-TUR-PEP" is hot stuff—not too hot, but just right, and continues to do its work for hours after the ordinary mustard preparation would lose its effect.

"MUS-TUR-PEP" is quickly absorbed, goes right to the spot where the pain or congestion is, and remains there in a continuous helpful way.

Don't fail to get a jar of "MUS-TUR-PEP" and give it a trial. All druggists sell, recommend and guarantee "MUS-TUR-PEP."

"MUS-TUR-PEP" is put out by the Nostriola Balm Company of Wheeling, W. Va., and it is a thoroughly honest, reliable preparation. If you don't find that it does all that is claimed for it, and more, take empty jar back to your druggist and get your money.

Get a small jar of "MUS-TUR-PEP" today—You may need it tomorrow.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

If cross, feverish or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look! Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs." and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping and you have a well, pleasant child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-up printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups.
Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs"; then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

SHIPBUILDING PLANT HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED IN PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Philadelphia, Jan. 31.—Virtually every state in the union and many distant parts of the world are represented among the thousands of ship-workers and their families who are hastening to this city to settle in the new community established in the 40th ward for employees of a large shipbuilding corporation which has established a plant at Hog Island.
The influx, which began with the establishment of the plant a short time ago, will add, according to local officials, from 25,000 to 30,000 persons to Philadelphia's population.

Before the establishment of the Hog Island plant, thousands of workmen attracted to the Delaware River shipbuilding yards had utilized all the housing facilities in the district.
This made it necessary for the city to co-operate with the government in planning for the reception of the new army which Philadelphia is called upon to accommodate.

More than 10,000 workers will be required to erect the houses in the community which will in the future be the homes of the new arrivals. It is estimated, according to surveys made at the instance of the city, that from 5000 to 7500 dwellings will be necessary. The cost will exceed $10,- 000,000 including wages.

Another fortune will be required for the construction of sewers, water facilities and other sanitary arrangements in this new section.
Streets will be laid, miles of water pipes will be installed and all the heating, lighting and transportation accommodations of a modern city.

This working program is to be hastened with all possible speed so that workmen who could be used on the scores of ships contracted for by the government in Delaware River yards will be released without delay.

The city is still working on the problem of police and fire protection for the "Hog Island" colony along with other details which cannot be arranged until the homes are built.

BETTER MENU BALANCE.

Speaking recently before the Ohio hotel men, Edna N. White, expert in economics, voiced her belief that the average hotel menu is poorly balanced and that a dietetic and financial standpoint, furnishing too much meat and not enough vegetables. The time has come for hotel men to profit by the excellent work done by domestic science departments in our universities and colleges, she maintained.
The American Food Journal gives the following quotations from her address:

"For many years hotel men have been spending their energy in educating their public to make the wrong kind of demands. They have vied with one another in offering inducements to their customers to order lavishly of expensive materials until the situation has become ruinous. In a recent discussion by Dr.
Langworthy, Government food expert, on selection of diets, meals were divided into the hotel type and the family type. The first is characterized by the large proportion of meat and the latter by the large proportion of fruit and vegetables. Aside from the question of relative expense, the question of personal welfare would lead to the selection of the latter type. But for years all hotel menus have been built on this idea of making meat the important item, the other things being merely incidental. Since fruits and vegetables are considered merely incidental, little attention is given to their preparation, and in consequence it has become proverbial that in the ordinary hotel the vegetables are almost un-eatable."

"Now, it will be no small feat to re-educate your public, but I venture to predict that it will have to be done. That it can be done is shown by the greatly decreased consumption of meat in the ordinary home, due undoubtedly to the agitation by nutrition experts against the excessive amount of meat in the ordinary American diet."

"Anyone who has ever visited Battle Creek can testify to the great interest taken by their guests in selecting their diet according to the suggestions offered by dietitians. Guests of this institution seem to regard this unique method as some new and interesting game, which they are eager to learn. One of the northern railroads offers a menu each day which they advertise as well-balanced, and the dining-car directors have testified to its popularity with the public."

"As a whole, the policy of hotel tables has been largely determined by the part of its public that indulges in a loud-voiced complaints. There is, in addition to this patronage, a large proportion of quiet people who are not complainers, and they quietly go to simpler places whenever possible.
A study of the places that have been conspicuous successes from a financial point of view is rather illuminating. In very few instances have they been places where high prices and elaborate service prevailed. Simple dishes at moderate prices bring numbers, thus reducing relatively the cost of operation and service. Many of these places have departments where surplus prepared food is sold in order to avoid the deterioration due to carrying food materials over. This plan has been successfully worked out in one hotel of which I know."

Ohio Women, Prepare!

Thousands of women in Ohio have overcome their suffering, and have been cured of woman's ills by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This temperance medicine, though started nearly half a century ago, sells most widely to-day.
It can now be had in tablet form as well as liquid, and every woman who suffers from backache, headache, nervousness, should take this "Prescription" of Dr. Pierce's. It is prepared from nature's roots and herbs and does not contain a particle of alcohol or any narcotic. It's not a secret prescription for its ingredients are printed on wrapper. Send 10c for trial package to Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

COLUMBUS, Ohio.—"I can recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription also the 'Golden Medical Discoveries' as the best medicines I've ever used for myself and in my practice as a nurse. I am the mother of four healthy children whose health I attribute to my use of Doctor Pierce's Remedies. I gladly recommend them to all suffering women." —Mrs. NELLIE
BURNETT, 82 S. Gift Street.

CLEVELAND, Ohio.—"Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription helped me so much during expectancy. I was so nervous that I couldn't eat and I became very weak and miserable. Then my sister advised me to take "Favorite Prescription," and the first few doses made me feel like a different woman. I was so strong and well all the time and my baby was a healthy 10½-pound boy. This medicine has been used by other members of my family and with just as splendid results.
We are always enthusiastic in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to expectant mothers."—Mrs. M.

"Pape's Diapiesin" Makes Sick, Sour, Gassy Stomachs Feel Fine.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into acids and cause a sick, sour gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs.
Dyspeptic, jot this down. Pape's Diapiesin helps neutralize the excessive acids in the stomach so your food won't sour and upset you. There never was anything so safe, quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is upset you usually get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it helps to regulate your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapiesin" is positive in neutralizing the acidity, so the misery won't come back very quickly.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder due to acid formentation. Advertisement

Columbus, Jan. 31.—Ohio's tuberculosis death rate in 1916 was lower than that of the country at large, but her pneumonia rate was higher. These facts were brought out in a comparison of Ohio death totals and the recently announced census bureau figures for 1916, which the State Department of Health made today.

This result of the comparison means, according to the department of health, that the fight against tuberculosis in the state is gaining ground, and that the department's recent warning to Ohioans to be on their guard against pneumonia was justified.

Pneumonia has been gaining in fatality in the state in recent years, and its death rate passed the declining tuberculosis rate for the first time in 1916. The 1916 tuberculosis rate for the census bureau's registration area—141.6 deaths per 100,000 population—has not been equaled in Ohio since 1911.

Ohio's tuberculosis rate in 1916 was 132.8 per 100,000 population.
Ohio's pneumonia rate was 141.2 and that of the country at large was 137.3.

Bright's disease and nephritis, cancer, diarrhea and enteritis, influenza, arterial diseases, diabetes.
They occupied the above order in

AMUSEMENTS

LYRIC.
Franksford's Dixie Dancing Girls are holding the boards this week and it is one of the best dancing shows that Manager Eldon has had this season, and the trick piano playing of Mr. Milt Franksford is hard to beat. The comedy is clean cut and the chorus is made up of a bunch of pretty girls that know how to sing and dance. Tonight will be country store night and many presents will be given away.
Next week the Cornell-Price Players open an engagement at the Lyric theatre on Monday, Feb. 4th, presenting a line of comedies and comedy dramas, with feature vaudeville between the acts, and the engagement promises to be one of the pleasant surprises of the season to the patrons of this cozy theatre. The opening play is one of unusual merit, being the southern comedy drama, "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie." The play is brim full of good comedy, and a lean story of heart interest that everyone will enjoy. Happy Hal Price, the comedian, is at the head of the company, with a bunch of "dope" that is a sure cure for "blues." All special scenery will be used during this engagement, and no pains spared to give complete production. Other bills to be presented during the engagement are: "The Crook," "Calling of Dan Matthews," "In Pines With the Allies," "The Society Detective," "When Reuben Comes to Town," "The Traffic," "Little Lost Sister," and other well known successes. Matinees daily, and two performances nightly at popular prices.

GRAND.
"Vengeance and the Woman." Ingenuity in cruelty is taxed to the utmost in planning the death of William Duncan (the hero) in the fifth episode of "Vengeance and the Woman." Greater Vitaphone's wonderful melodrama serial, which will be seen at the Grand theatre on Saturday. The outlaws have hauled Duncan and his wife, (Carol Holloway) from a ledge prison on promise of liberty in return for $10,000 ransom, which has been paid. They want the woman, but how to kill Duncan is the question. Black Jack, outlaw leader, binds him and throws him over the edge of the cliff at the end of a rope which passes over a knife-like rock. At every struggle of the helpless man this knife is sunk deeper into the rope, severing it at a time. When only one strand keeps Duncan from plunging to death in the chasm, the outlaws ride away with Miss Holloway, who has been a witness to Duncan's torture. The photography is fully equal to the plot, the scene having been staged in a mountain pass in Southern California. The music is by the well known Arthur J. Lamb and the music by the celebrated French composer, Jules Clauvenet.

ALHAMBRA.
Tonight and Tomorrow.
William Russell, the American-Mutual screen star who refereed a big wrestling match at Santa Barbara, Calif., a few days ago between "Bull" Montana, his sparring partner, and Matti Giant, otherwise "The Klondike Kid," stopped in Chicago en route to New York, and offered to match "Bull" against any of the carpet bag heavyweights of this locality. Russell, who is starred in a new American-Mutual production, "In Bad," says his protegee can flop any day in the country up to 200 pounds and offers to back his opinion with actual "kale," of which he carries enough to choke a shark.
"This kid is the greatest that ever stood on two legs, and he's right there with the tricks of his trade," said which I refereed a decided draw. "Bull" was out of condition, but a week later I matched him again against a far better man than he and he put the scissors on him in five minutes. "The match with Bernie went three hours and fifteen minutes. 'Bull' would have kept on all night but I was hungry and we had deviled crabs at home so I made him quit."

GEM.
"Flirting With Death" is the happy choice of title affixed to the Bluebird entertainment to be presented by Herbert Rawlinson and Brownie Vernon at the Gem theatre tonight when sensation and excitement will pave the way with thrills to the happy ending of a most romantic venture into aerobatics. "Sky High" Wardwell loves the daughter of an inventor who has found an easy way to drop to earth from an alship. "Sky High" not only promotes the company to manufacture the appliance but goes into the air to prove its feasibility. From thrilling heights he makes a sensational drop into the arms of the girl he loves, winning both fortune and happiness for all concerned.

AUDITORIUM.
"The Son of His Father." Five years ago Charles Ray, who will be seen at the Auditorium today and tomorrow in "The Son of His Father," a Paramount production, was a member of an unimpaired stock company in the Far West. Today he is one of the recognized stars of the cinema world.

His newest photodrama gives to this young actor splendid opportunities for effective portrayal of an interesting character. He is seen as the son of a New York railroad magnate, who, with five thousand dollars, sets out to prove to his father that he possesses enough inherent business ability to make a hundred thousand dollars in six months. He makes good, defeating his father in a contest of business wits, and finding the love of a girl of the West. In fact, he proves in every way that he is the "son of his father."

It is a role very much to Ray's liking, and he brings to it the pleasing personality, the boyish enthusiasm and the recognized ability for screen acting that have made him a favorite everywhere.
This feature will be seen at the Auditorium today and tomorrow, in conjunction with the two-reel World feature, "Over Here." Tomorrow the Hearst-Pathe News is an added feature.

"Over Here."
Just what this volcanic energy of America can accomplish is shown in the great patriotic film, "Over Here," which will be shown at the Auditorium today. This big, tremendous offering, showing America's resistless thousands smashing all construction records to bits in the construction of the vast cantonments in which Uncle Sam's army will be housed while being trained for the final smash in the great conflict.

The whole fascinating process of building a gigantic cantonment is shown in this picture. You can see the hordes of men rushing toward a building and getting it up in the twinkling of an eye, you see the vast stores of supplies tackled by motor trucks and carted away before you can draw your breath, you see a country side turned into a city of 40,000 in the space of a few weeks. And, finally, you see the American troops marching into the city to take their quarters where they will remain until they go to sea to administer the final punch to Germany.

This feature is seen at the Auditorium today and tomorrow in conjunction with the Paramount feature in which Charles Ray is starred, called "The Son of His Father."

"The Pride of New York."
Are you a rich man? Are you a poor man? What is your station in life? You will enjoy seeing George Walsh in his latest William Fox picture, "The Pride of New York," which will be seen at the Auditorium Sunday for a one day run.
If you are a rich man and have a son you may find seeing this photodrama. It may bring you to a realization that perhaps you have not looked after that son and guided him as you should have. Perhaps he lacks industry. Perhaps his aim in life is merely to spend your money.
If you are a poor man and have a son who is industrious, who is a worker hard to better himself, you will like this picture, because it shows that he has a chance, especially in Uncle Sam's army, which is a measure is a leveler of human beings.

George Walsh shows what an energetic American youth can do in the ranks of the new army, and he shows also how hard an industrious young fellow can work and enjoy it. George does some hair-raising stunts that will thrill even an ironworker who does dangerous stunts himself.
This feature, together with the Cleveland Plain Dealer Magazine, also the two-reel Mack Sennett comedy, gives amusement seekers another treat.

"Down to Earth."
The Auditorium feature for next Monday is the great and only "Doug" Fairbanks, who comes back in one of his former successes, "Down to Earth," by Anita Loos and John Emerson.

By Anita Loos and John Emerson.
The Auditorium in Artistic pictures has one of the biggest drawing cards now on the Artistic program and the mere announcement that he will be seen at the Auditorium is enough to pack this cozy playhouse. The two-reel Mack Sennett comedy, "His Hidden Purpose," also the Hearst-Pathe News, are added features. The showings on Monday will be continuous.

"Girl of My Heart."
"Girl of My Heart," Percy J. Kelly's new musical comedy production, will be presented at the Auditorium theatre, matinee and night on Friday, Feb. 8th. The book and lyrics are by the well known Arthur J. Lamb and the music by the celebrated French composer, Jules Clauvenet.

The story of this scintillating piece has to do with the merry intrigue of a beautiful girl who is involved in a unique financial tangle. Her beauty, wit and daring aid her in effecting a happy solution of the difficulty and all ends well. This delightful mixture of mirth and melody has a real plot and the story as it unfolds, is filled with happy surprises, while the rich melo-dies that embellish the action are alluring and nerve tingling.

Eda Ann Luke is most happily cast as Mabel Splendid, the winsome heroine, and her vivid, joyous personality, and pleasing voice bring a charm to the part that places it among the most notable and delightful characterizations of the season.

Vernor Saxton, the well known young tenor of the concert stage, fills the romantic role of Jack Thunderer. Possessed of a wonderful voice and grand opera calibre, he renders the love arias and dreamy waltz melodies with a charm and artistry.

Twenty other artists are concerned in the performance, which is one continuous round of gaily, laughter, love, and beauty. The action of the piece is laid in New York and old Japan and the production is mounted lavishly. Especially noteworthy is the scene in a Japanese garden, where the splendor and beauty are faithfully depicted. There is a chorus of sprightly beauties to add to the gaiety of the action and the costumes are the very last word in sartorial splendor.

Eda Ann Luke heads the cast, which includes Verner Saxton, Florence Beresford, Wm. J. McCarthy, Charles W. Meyers, Lois Arnold, Walter Ware, Thos. F. Reynolds, Casper Bauer, Mary Fredericks and Dorothy Hickock. There is an augmented orchestra to further enhance the melody feast.

Howe's Pictures.
Lyman H. Howe's newest Travel Festival comes to the Auditorium for a return engagement. The new program features a remarkable tour of the China, revealing secret corners of the Celestial Empire never before depicted. This includes a visit to Peking's Forbidden City. A trip through the Alaskan wilds is a picture of unusual interest, including the various bizarre devices of the country's playground, "A Mountain Lion," provides a thrill and of absorbing interest is a series of views of Uncle Sam's new army caterpillar tractors in action.

Auditorium Notes.
Gilbert M. (Bronco Bill) Anderson is coming back to films and will appear again in a picture called "Baker Hands."

The appeal of "The Son of Democracy" is mighty. Benjamin Chaplin in the series of dramatic film stories of America in the making, the Paramount Pictures Corporation have something that will thrill the world. These features are to start at the Auditorium early in February.

Fred Niblo, noted as is to marry Enid Bennett, now a picture star with The Paramount Corp. Niblo's wife, Josephine Cohan, died a short time ago and the announcement of this engagement comes as a surprise.

Faunt Ward, clever Paramount star, comes to the Auditorium next Wednesday in "On the Level," a picture that is said to be one of the best this artist has ever appeared in. Jack Pickford and Louise Loring are seen next Saturday in "The Ghost House," another Paramount feature.

The World Film Corp. is meeting the war situation and helping exhibitors with some of their losses by giving free films with every film contracted for.

Mrs. Maude Murray Miller has been elected chairman of The Ohio Board of Censors to succeed Charles G. Williams. Mrs. Miller has been connected with the censor board ever since it was created in 1912.

Manager Fenberg received a wire yesterday from the Cleveland office of the First National Exhibitors' Circuit to this effect: Charlie Chaplin started work today; will deliver his first comedy in six weeks—which will place the release date of the first comedy to you about the latter part of February.

The Hearst-Pathe News is celebrating its seventh birthday this week. This weekly is found only in the better theatres throughout the country and is said to be the best News Film in existence. It is seen here at the Auditorium both on Monday and Saturday.

The big laugh feature, "His Hidden Purpose," Paramount-Mack Sennett Comedy, comes to the Auditorium Sunday. This comedy is a regular Laura Jean Libby melo-drama turned into a merri-drama disclosing the disarming heroine, the hampered hero, the vile villain and the scheming father. There are three elopements in this as well as several good all-around fights, a few kidnappings and a "smashing" clever climax. Marie Prevost plays the girl, Chester Conklin the villain, Gene Rogers, the father, Neal Burns the "sweetheart" and Frank Cooper the boarding house keeper.

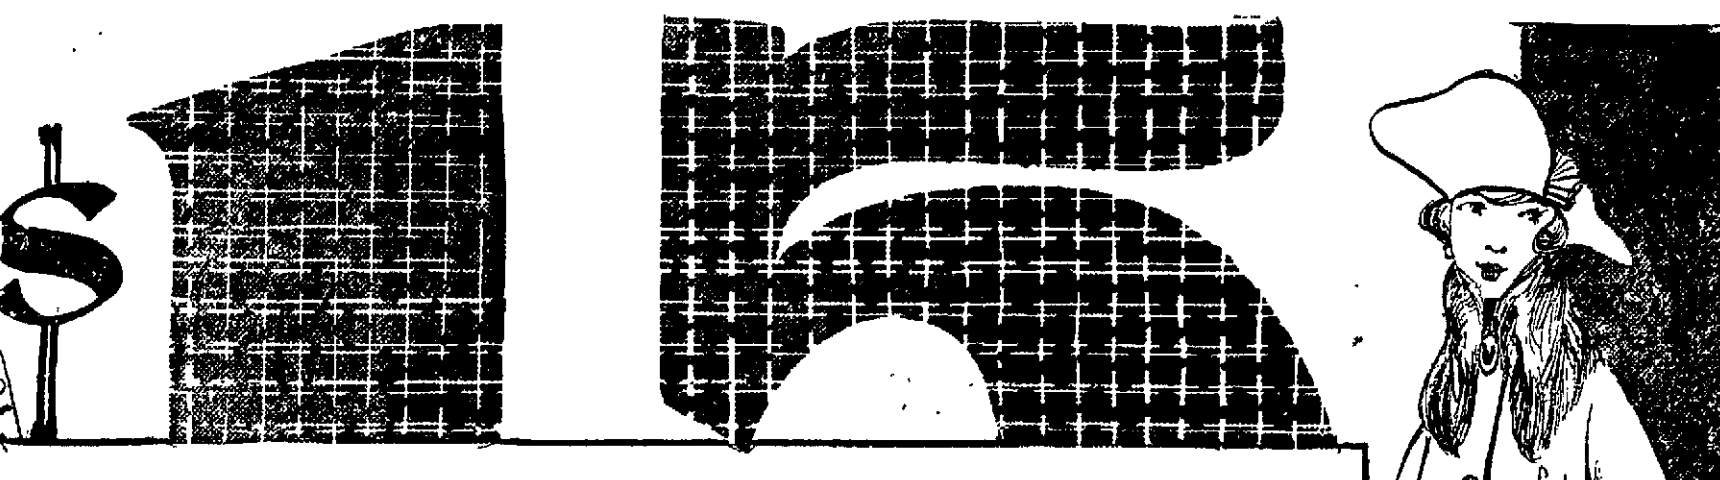

Frances Sterling Clark will be seen as "Judy" when Henry Miller's "Daddy Long Legs" appears at the Auditorium. The papers give Miss Clark good notices in almost every city so far visited. The Brooklyn Times said "from the time Miss Clark first appears in the scene of the John Grier Home, she shows a thorough comprehension of the opportunities of the part."

The camp seen in "The Pride of New York," in which George Walsh is seen at the Auditorium Sunday, were taken at Camp Merritt near Trenton, N. J. In the cast besides the star is seen James A. Marcus, William Bailey, Regina Quinn and others.

WHAT SUGAR SHORTAGE TAUGHT THE CHOKER

After two months' pressure, due to sugar shortage, when the retail grocer's establishment often resembled a bank during a run, the grocery trade now begins to see genuine benefit in this recent commodity disturbance. For years, says the Retail Grocers' Advocate, it has been the custom of the trade to use sugar as bait to sell other foodstuffs. It was a teacher to sell other foodstuffs, and in rare cases did little else than pay sugar off for handling. It was the "unwritten law" of the trade to sell sugar at cost. Such a thing as advertising the cost of doing business to the purchase cost was unheard of, and the grocer businessman enough to suggest that sugar should carry its burden of overhead would have been laughed at.

But the sugar crisis demonstrated that this is one of the most important items in the grocery business, and there is a question in the minds of retailers as to whether foodstuffs are the retail grocer's customers; if the retail grocers of the country are paying for their past unbalanced system, handling sugar, and one or two other items on a gross profit margin which did not return them enough to cover overhead, much less net profit. One-third of the grocer's sales were made on this basis, and the remaining two-thirds of his goods had to be sold at speculative prices, owing to overpayments by the

ONLY POWERFUL MEDICINE WILL END RHEUMATISM

It matters not whether you have had agonizing pains from rheumatism for 20 years or distressing twitches for 20 weeks, Rheuma is strong enough and mighty and powerful enough to drive rheumatic poisons from your body and abolish all misery or money back.

T. J. Evans and all druggists sell Rheuma on a no-cure-no-pay basis. A large bottle is inexpensive, and after you take the small dose as directed once a day for two days you should know that at last you have obtained a remedy that will conquer rheumatism.

For over five years throughout America Rheuma has been prescribed by broad-minded physicians and has released thousands from agony, pain and despair.—Advertisement.

Camp Sherman, who is visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Priest, North Fifth street, will return to his duties at camp Sunday.

Bound for Zanesville.
A string of nine new "flivvers" passed through the city this morning enroute from the factory in Detroit to Zanesville. They left Newark by way of the East Main street pike but had not proceeded far when they returned and went by way of the Newark-Zanesville pike, although not doubting the ability of the mighty Ford the condition of the road caused them to choose the latter route.

Taken to Home.
Miss Ethel Inscho was removed from the City hospital to her home, 312 Elmwood avenue, in the Citizens Undertaking ambulance, Thursday afternoon. She is recovering from an operation.

STAMP SALES OVER THE TOP FOR THIS WEEK

War Savings Stamp sales at the Newark postoffice yesterday amounted to $4002.16, but on two previous days this week the sales were $6863 and $6874, respectively. All reports from the banks are not yet in but it looks like Licking had "gone over the top" again this week.

Supt. Zwyer of the Brownsville-Gratiot-Jacksontown district, is organizing the schools of his section for a lively thrift campaign and is arranging to present the War Savings proposition to all the people of that part of the county.

Some people think they must buy Thrift Stamps before they obtain the War Savings Stamps. Not so. One may buy the $5 interest bearing stamps outright, anytime this year.

The price of the War Savings Stamps is now $4.13. The ones bought yesterday at $4.12 are now worth $4.13. On March 1st the price advances to $4.14—one cent advance each month this year.

The list of stamp selling agencies in this county is still growing and will soon reach the 500 mark. More agencies are needed in North, East, South and West Newark and several of the factories have as yet failed to place Savings Stamps in their offices for sale to employees. More agents are wanted at Hanover, Tobago, Homer, St. Louisville, Jack-sontown, Brownsville, Claylick, Kirksville, Etna, Fallsburg and Summit Station. Write to the Licking County War Savings Committee, Newark, O.

The editors of the newspapers published at Johnstown, Granville, Pataskala and Utica are here this afternoon conferring with the war savings committee and the executive committee of the Licking county war board.

Business men and manufacturers who are willing to use a rubber stamp thrift slogan on their stationery are requested to telephone R. C.
Van Voorhis of the Universal Supply Company.

One woman who conducts a small shop in this town bought $5 worth of stamps one day this week and in 24 hours sold over $100 worth of War Savings Stamps. Get a few stamps, put up a "For Sale" card and work for Uncle Sam who needs both money and service.

The young women employed in the Newark Trust building had a meeting last evening to organize a thrift club and at the same time they pledged their best efforts towards promoting the sale of War Savings Stamps.

War Savings Stamps are "Baby Liberty Bonds"; they are better than money because they grow in value every month, are not taxable, may be protected against theft or loss, pay four per cent interest and may be redeemed before maturity by giving 10 days' notice to the postmaster. Their purchase helps Uncle Sam and also the purchaser.
George B. Sprague said the other day, "Lending money to one's country on far rates of interest is certainly cheerful patriotism."

PRIZES AWARDED BY R. B. WHITE CO. AT HIGH SCHOOL

This morning at the chapel services at the high school, prizes were awarded to the successful contestants in the "Why should every family own their own home contest," given by the R. B. White Lumber company, of this city. After a few remarks by R. B. White the contestants were called to the platform and given their prizes.

Those who were successful were:
Elizabeth Keyes, $5, first prize to high school pupils; Geneva Stephenson, $3, second prize to high school pupils; Ralph B. Allen, $3, first prize to eighth-grade pupils; Carl Sparks, $1, second prize to eighth-grade pupils; Paul Stoll, $3, first prize to seventh-grade pupils; Martha G.
Smith, $1, second prize to seventh-grade pupils.

The prize-winner from the rural districts—Glenna Rine—was unable to be present. She will receive $3.

BUSINESS MEN'S CHURCH SUPPER WELL ATTENDED

The Business Men's supper was held last evening at the Second Presbyterian church, a large number being present. After an excellent meal had been served, Rev. Dan Tullin introduced F. L. Beggs, who read a part of Major Murphy's address, given before the Business Men's club of New York City. This article told of the work of the American Red Cross in the nations of Europe and of the conditions this organization met when they first went over.
Later, Prof. E. P. Johnson of Denison University, gave several very interesting readings which were enjoyed by all.

The music was furnished by the church orchestra, and the program was well selected, being composed of selections taken from many of the popular operas.

WOMAN'S NERVES MADE STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Winona, Minn.—"I suffered for more than a year from nervousness, and was so bad I could not rest at night—
would lie awake and get so nervous I would have to get up and walk around and in the morning would be all tired out. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
and thought I would try it. My nervousness soon left me. I sleep well and feel fine in the morning and able to do my work. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to make weak nerves strong."—Mrs. ALBERT SULTZ, 603 Olmstead St., Winona, Minn.

How often do we hear the expression among women, "I am so nervous, I cannot sleep," or "It seems as though I should fly." Such women should profit by Mrs. Sultz's experience and give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, irregularities, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

NEW IMPROVEMENTS
AT C. L. GAMBLE STORE.
C. L. Gamble has installed in his store two very attractive booths for use in the sale of Columbia and Cheney Talking Machines and Records. The booths are sound-proof and patrons can hear the latest records played at any time without any interruption from business carried on in other departments of the store.
These new booths will prove a big advantage in the demonstration of machines and records, and the new feature is in keeping with the progressive policy of the Gamble store.

IN NEW QUARTERS
The Auto-Electric Specialty company has removed from 13 South Fourth street, to 56 West Main street, next door to the gas office, the room formerly occupied by Roy J. Baird. This new and enlarged quarters will enable this firm to care for the needs of their many patrons to better advantage than in the past and the management invites all patrons and the public to call and see them at the new location.
S. E. Forsythe, local representative for the Studebaker Automobile, will also be located at the above address with a big line of Studebaker cars for the spring trade.

ARTHUR SHATTUCK, TUESDAY EVENING

The second concert on the grand piano course will be given on Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Baptist church by the world-famous pianist, Arthur Shattuck.
All the attractions booked are of exactly the class that some drive to Columbus for during the season.
Holders of tickets please note; others may secure tickets at Ul-man's or at the door.

CHAS. B. STEVENS SENDS A LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA

Editor of The Advocate:—I am enclosing renewal subscription for Newark Advocate to be sent to same address as heretofore.

Have been interested in the patriotic spirit along every line which is shown in your paper and by the city. I wish I might be one with you in every movement. However, all parts of the country are one in upholding the government and we are lending our aid in this western division and I am glad to say that San Diego has so far, exceeded her quota in all the various calls made upon her. The citizens are busy in their efforts to make San Diego a pleasant and comfortable place for our many soldiers and sailors. The entertainment, Camp Kearney, just outside San Diego, is a city in itself of over 40,000 men. There is gas, electricity, water, telephones, paved streets, a very busy postoffice, requiring eight clerks, a library, a hall for religious meetings, places of amusement—two moving picture theatres—pool rooms, photograph galleries, lunch rooms, five Y. M. C. A. camps, a large K. of C. hall, a beautiful Y. W. C. A., Hostess House, large hospital fully equipped, etc. Various celebrities entertain the men at the camp. Madam Schumann-Heink has sung for them several times. Inga Orner has just given them a concert, also Godowsky a piano recital. Ruth St. Denis and Ted Shawn and some dancing girls have held two entertainments, and many functions are given in this city, and in Coronado and La Folla. Connected with Camp Kearney is a large mount camp.

Our largest park—Balboa Park—is a 1400 acres tract of land in the center of the city. That is where our beautiful exposition was held and it makes an ideal place for five or six hundred naval recruits and fifteen hundred men who are studying the rudiments of aviation. The young men seem to fully appreciate the beautiful buildings, in their setting of shrubbery and flowers. They wash the deck (the Prado and Plaza—two wide streets at right angles) in true sailor fashion with the large bottoms of the trouser legs of their white suits turned up over the knees.

There are also marines and infantry in the park and the regulars at Ft. Rosecrans, guarding the harbor, and one of the largest radio plants in the world—the Eholia Heights station—situated just outside the city. We will be glad to know of the presence of any Newark boys at any of our camps.

Mr. Charles F. Sowersby writes to The Advocate of picking violets in his yard in Oregon. It is great to have them in the winter. A few miles outside of San Diego, the Japs are growing fields of them, also large areas of sweet peas and carnations. They are all in blossom now and are grown without shelter of any kind. It is still marvelous to us to see this profusion of bloom in midwinter. I think that Mr. Sowersby would agree that San Diego is ahead if he could see our pointsettias. At the side of the house is a large bunch of them much higher than my head. Each branch is tipped with a handsome scarlet blossom. I easily counted over fifty of them and a measurement of one flower was nineteen inches across the face. Today is a beautiful day, warm enough to have doors and windows all open during the sunny hours, and enough coolness in the breeze to make the atmosphere fresh and invigorating.

I have just returned from a week's trip to Imperial Valley. It is a wonderfully prosperous section and much of interest could be told. While on this trip I thought of our old home, of our friends and acquaintances surrounded by conditions in absolute contrast to my own where I could see hay being cut, the last picking of cotton, cattle, sheep and hogs deep in fields of alfalfa. Very sincerely, Chas. B. Stevens, 2850 Cedar St., west, San Diego, Calif. Jan. 25th, 1918.

No, Maude, dear; there doesn't seem to be much connection between the fuel administration and the fire department.

WANT NEWARK NURSES TO ATTEND MEETING TO PERFECT ORGANIZATION

Zanesville, O., Feb. 1.—A meeting of all graduate and student nurses has been called for Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bethesda hospital where an organization will be perfected by Miss Anna C. Gladwin, district Red Cross organizer, for the purpose of interesting the nurses in Red Cross work.

It is requested that nurses from Muskingum, Licking, Perry, Morgan, Washington and Monroe counties attend the meeting, as it is planned to have experienced nurses enlist in the service to aid the soldiers in Red Cross work when the call comes. Miss Gladwin will also give an interesting talk on the duties of a Red Cross nurse.

GREEK RESERVISTS CALLED TO COLORS

POLES HAVE REVOLTED AGAINST BOLSHEVIKI

(Associated Press Telegram.)
London, Feb. 1.—News has reached Kiev from Minsk that the Polish legion has declared war against the Bolsheviks, a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd says.

Both the German and Russian armies contain divisions made up of Poles. The Germans had organized a Polish legion but it was disbanded several months ago to make way for a Polish national army. Minsk is behind the Russian lines, which would indicate that the Poles in the Russians have revolted against the Bolsheviks.

CHIROPRACTIC

ADJUSTS SPINAL DEFECTS.

Chiropractic Adjustments lift the pressure from the nerves, permitting them to nourish the famished and worn-out tissues and organs. Nature is then able to bring about normal conditions—which means Health.

Let Chiropractic Put You in Tune With the Healing Forces of Nature.
